

UERSA WALKING

Do you remember – or did you miss the fun in 2008?

February – Haytor with rainbow – picnic for all seasons

March – Shillingford & Ide – ORANGE ELEPHANT!
Excellent farm shop and tea-room too

April – Beacon Heath
Local wildlife near Pinhoe Church

April – South Zeal & Cosdon Hill
Dartmoor brings out male chivalry

May – Newton St. Cyres Casual and relaxed

May – Woodbury
Leaders sometimes have interesting things to show us

*June – Exwick
50th walk – picnic, punch and desserts*

*June – Lundy
A fabulous day*

Lundy- Seals and Soay sheep spotted but not on the photos! Major sighting of dolphins from boat

Lundy - Spotlight recording – unfortunately no-one from the group in the August transmission

July – Exe Valley Way – constant sun

August – Brixham to Kingswear Incredible heat but beautiful views

August- Christow – Tottiford Reservoir

Rare event – needed to shelter under trees for the picnic – a heavy storm but fine again when we walked afterwards

September – New Bridge

Wonderful Dartmoor again

October – Dawlish Warren– return ‘round trip’ planned

Weather incredible – everyone relaxed and enjoying it!

October – Exmouth – Budleigh Salterton Picnicking in fantastic sun again!

Sue & Patrick's wonderful hospitality

November – White Cross & River Otter – less than a week after the awful Ottery floods

Incredible Autumn colours

December – Hunter's Path, Fingle Bridge

Sun all the way

Other walks to remember but sadly no photos!
January – Peak Hill, Sidmouth – beautiful walk and very fortunate with the weather – a fine day in the middle of an atrocious week!

February – Countess Wear – local, easy and popular March Budlake – east of Killerton and very interesting
July – Quantocks – fabulous views
November – Topsham – many there for an afternoon walk
